   (a) enter any premises specified in that warrant;
   (b) direct the person in control of or any person employed at the premises to—
      (i) disclose any register, record, book, other document or information that pertains to the investigation and is in the possession or under the control of that person; and
      (ii) render such assistance as the police official requires in order to enable such police official to perform his or her functions under this Act;
   (c) inspect any register, record, book or other document and make copies thereof or excerpts therefrom;
   (d) examine any goods or other articles found on the premises;

   (f) seal or seal off the premises at, on or in which second-hand goods are found, in order to prevent a person from conducting business in contravention of this Act.

(2) A police official may not enter upon or search any premises without audibly demanding admission to the premises and giving notice of the purpose of the entry, unless such police official is, on reasonable grounds, of the opinion that such demand and notification will defeat the purpose of the search.

(3) A police official contemplated in subsection (1) may use such force as may reasonably be necessary to overcome resistance to the entry or search.

(4) Any entry and search in terms of subsection (1) may only be executed by day, unless the execution thereof by night is reasonable and justifiable.
(5) A police official may without a warrant enter upon any premises and search for, seize and remove anything contemplated in subsection (1) if—
   (a) the person who is competent to do so consents to such entry, search, seizure and removal; or
   (b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that—
      (i) a warrant would be issued to the police official if he or she applied for such warrant; and
      (ii) the delay in obtaining such warrant would defeat the purpose of the search.

(6) Any goods seized in terms of this section must be dealt with in the manner contemplated in Chapter 2 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), which applies with the changes required by the context.

Warrant

30. (1) A warrant to enter, search, seize and seal off premises must be issued by a magistrate or a judge of the High Court who has jurisdiction in the area in which the premises in question are situated, if it appears from information on oath or affirmation that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a provision of this Act has been or is being contravened.

(2) A warrant issued under this section must specify—
   (a) the premises which may be entered and which of the acts mentioned in section 29(1) may be performed by the police official;
   (b) the period for which the premises may be sealed off for purposes of section 29(1)(f), which may not exceed seven days; and
   (c) whether the warrant authorises execution by night.

(3) A warrant contemplated in this section remains in force until—
   (a) it has been executed;
   (b) it is cancelled by the person who issued it, or if such person is not available, by any other person with similar authority;
   (c) one month from the date of its issue; or
   (d) the purpose for which the warrant was issued no longer exists, whichever occurs first.

Extension of powers

31. (1) The Minister may by notice in the Gazette, either generally or subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notice, extend the powers contemplated in this Chapter to any person employed by a public entity contemplated in the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999), or any other statutory body if that person is a peace officer contemplated in section 1 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977).

(2) The notice contemplated in subsection (1) must set out—
