Surrendering of illegal/unwanted firearms, firearm parts and/or ammunition, without fear of being prosecuted for the unlawful possession

Persons or institutions that meet the criteria below can apply for amnesty:

- Persons in possession of a firearm without a legitimate licence, permit or authorisation.
- Persons in possession of a firearm part (slide, bolt or breech –block) without a licenced firearm capable of bearing that part.
- Persons in possession of ammunition without a licenced firearm capable of discharging the ammunition or without a collector’s permit.
- Persons in possession of illegally imported firearms.
- Persons who inherited firearms but failed to obtain a licence, permit or authorisation for such firearms.
- Persons who have been declared unfit to possess a firearm, but failed to surrender their firearms and ammunition.
- Businesses (including private security businesses) with firearms and ammunition that ceased to carry on business and failed to dispose of the firearms and ammunition.
- Persons in possession of firearms of which the firearm licence, permit or authorisation has been terminated in terms of the Act.
- Institutions which wish to surrender obsolete/redundant/discarded firearms.

Persons who wish to voluntary surrender their legally possessed firearms and/or ammunition may do so at any time before, during and after the amnesty.
